

Annex 1 Stakeholders involved in JEE and NAPHS

Stakeholders (Govt)	Stakeholders (Partners and Other UN Organizations)
President Office Regional Administration and Local Government	UN Organizations- WHO, FAO, UNICEF, OIE, IOM
Prime Minister Office –Disaster Department	Government of Finland
IHR TWG (15) members, representing key ministries and one from Zanzibar)	US CDC
Ministry of Health, Community Development, Gender, Elderly and Children	USAID
Ministry of Livestock and Fisheries	US Department of Defence
Ministry of Home Affairs	US department of Agriculture
Ministry of Defence	European Union
Ministry of Finance and Planning	World Bank
Ministry of Education and Vocational Training	Public Health England (PHE)
Ministry of Constitution and legal Affairs	Skoll Foundation
Ministry of Foreign Affairs and East African Cooperation	Southern African Centre for Infectious Disease Surveillance (SACIDS)
Ministry of Infrastructure (Point of Entries-Julius Nyerere International Airport, Dar es salaam Sea Port)	Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit GmbH (GIZ)
Tanzania Food and Drug Authority	Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)
Government Chemist Laboratory Agency	Department for International Development (DFID)
Tanzania Atomic Energy Commission	PATH (country office)
Tanzania Meteorological Agency	AMREF (country office)

Tanzania Veterinary Laboratory Agency
Universities - Muhimbili University College of Allied Health Sciences and Sokoine University of Agriculture and Atomic Institute	Association of Private Health Facilities (APHTA)
Research Institutes- National Institute for Medical Research and Tanzania Wildlife Research Institutes)	One Health Central & Eastern Africa (OHCEA)
Tanzania Field Epidemiology and Laboratory Training program (TFELTP)	